America Lodge's mission is to celebrate our Italian culture and heritage by honoring our ancestors' visions of promoting, educating, supporting our members, and giving back to our communities. Joining together we create excitement, strengthen our bonds and advance the image of Italians everywhere.

PRESIDENT'S MESSAGE

Welcome to Italian American Heritage Month! During the month of October, we recognize the cultural contributions and achievements of Italian immigrants and Italian Americans in the United States. This month is a great time to learn more about Italian-American history and culture (reading this month's newsletter and attending movie night), enjoy Italian cuisine (joining us at our Annual Dinner Dance on October 19th) and attend local and national cultural events celebrating Italian heritage (attending our Memorial Mass, supporting/walking in the Columbus Day Parade or attend our General Membership meeting). As Italian Americans we have so much to celebrate, and so much to share.

As summer has turned to fall, everyone is starting to look forward to the upcoming holidays. It seems like every year it starts just a little earlier than last year. It was middle of September, and the Halloween decorations were on display. And we know the Christmas decorations can't be far behind.

September started off with our annual picnic at Plattduetsche Park, and it was a huge success. We had over 140 people attend and everyone had a great time. It was heartwarming to see such a large crowd and a special thank you to all our brothers and sisters that joined us from other lodges. I want to thank Maria Passalacqua and everyone who helped her organize the event. Thank you to everyone who donated gift baskets that were raffled off. We also had a special raffle of two baskets that helped support our scholarship program. And we even had a reporter from our local paper, the Franklin Square Herald, who wrote a fantastic article about the picnic and about America Lodge. This was our second mention in the Herald; the first covering our fishing trip. Many thanks to the Franklin Square Herald for helping us promote America Lodge.

In October there are many events that we will be participating in. On October 5th we will attend our touching and solemn annual Memorial Mass for our deceased members. Our book club will be hosting the movie "Cinema Paradiso" for Italian American Heritage Month on October 8th. We will join the Town of Hempstead Supervisor at town hall for the beautiful raising of the Italian flag ceremony on October 10th, and then on October 11th we will be wearing our red shirts and marching in the Grand Lodge's Long Island Columbus Day Parade.

But our premier event, the one we all look forward to, the biggest event for the month, will be held on October 19th when we will celebrate America Lodge's 54th Annual Dinner Dance at Leonard's Palazzo. We will be honoring National President Thomas Lupo, NYS Grand Lodge President Arthur Spera and our very own Donna Johnson Corresponding Secretary, editor of our Lions Roar and Website designer. This one event helps us remain financially viable throughout the year. This is our most important event, and I sincerely hope that you will join us in supporting our honorees and America Lodge. Please see the flyers in this issue to purchase your tickets.

As Italian Americans we have so much to celebrate, and this is our month to do it!

Fraternally,

Joe Armocida

WELCOME TO YOUR OCTOBER LION'S ROAR NEWSLETTER

2023, 2025 Best Newsletter in NY!

2024 Most Informative Newsletter in NY!

October is Italian American Heritage and Culture Month, a time to celebrate the proud legacy of Italian Americans and their lasting contributions. This month, we highlight three fascinating stories:

First, we honor the brilliant innovator who created something we all use every morning to wake up—and here's a hint: it's not coffee! His invention has become a part of our daily routine, and his ingenuity continues to impact our lives.

Next, we explore the inspiring journey of a man who initially considered dedicating his life to the church but ultimately chose a different path—football. His passion for the sport and his remarkable achievements left an unforgettable legacy that continues to influence the game today.

Finally, we share the story of an Italian American who was born in the United States but built his flourishing business with inspiration drawn from the Old World. You know his name, but his journey and the roots of his success might surprise you!

As we celebrate Italian American Heritage and Culture Month, we honor those who came before us, keeping their traditions and lessons alive. By remembering their stories, we continue the legacy of our ancestors and celebrate the richness of our heritage.

Enjoy your Newsletter!
Ciao,
Donna

Columbus Day Quiz

The Columbus Day holiday began as a way to:

- a) Celebrate Columbus's first successful voyage to the New World in 1492, on the Nina, Pinta and Santa Maria.
- b) To thank King Ferdinand and Queen Isabella for funding the voyage of Christopher Columbus in 1492, which resulted in the European discovery of the Americas.
- c) To remember the largest single mass lynching in U.S. history that murdered 11 innocent Italian Americans in New Orleans.
- d) To give hard working Americans a three-day weekend because without Columbus Day, October would not have a holiday.

In Loving MEMORY

LUIGI PINTO

America Lodge said goodbye to our beloved brother Luigi Pinto. I have never heard such a beautiful eulogy or attended such a beautiful church service. I am so blessed that I knew this wonderful man; got to experience his warm, loving smile and tender heart. We can only pray that Luigi will continue to share his legacy of love, and that he will continue to bless us with his smile, while his gentle spirit makes us all feel special in the way that only he could do.

God Bless you, Luigi..Rest in Peace.

OUR DEEPEST CONDOLENCES

A Juicy Tale...

Sicilian born Anthony T. Rossi came to the United States when he was 21. Armed with $30 in his pocket, and rough, broken English, he and several friends planned to earn enough money in New York to finance an African expedition they planned to turn into a film.

In New York City he held various jobs and worked as a machinist's assistant, cab/limousine driver and grocer before abandoning his film making endeavors. He reportedly said, "I came first to New York. But I like the country so much, I don't leave." And he didn't leave, but after 20 years in NYC he relocated to Florida.

He moved to Florida with the intent of becoming a tomato farmer, but that venture failed. He opened a cafeteria which prospered, and eventually he owned restaurants in Miami and Bradenton. But the rationing caused by World War II crippled his restaurants, causing Rossi to seek other opportunities. During this time, Rossi became involved with the Florida citrus industry. Soon after closing his restaurants, Rossi began selling "gift fruit boxes" to famous New York department stores like Macy's and Gimbel's.

From this fruit venture, Rossi transitioned into juice and distributed fresh orange juice to local customers. In 1946, Rossi founded a small orange juice company in western Florida and thus began the Tropicana Products company. Tropicana's early distribution of fresh orange juice was by way of hand-delivered juice jars to nearby homes, but demand grew, especially in New York City. As the popularity of Tropicana products grew, Rossi bought a ship, the S.S. Tropicana which was used to ship up to 1.5 million US gallons of juice to New York each week.

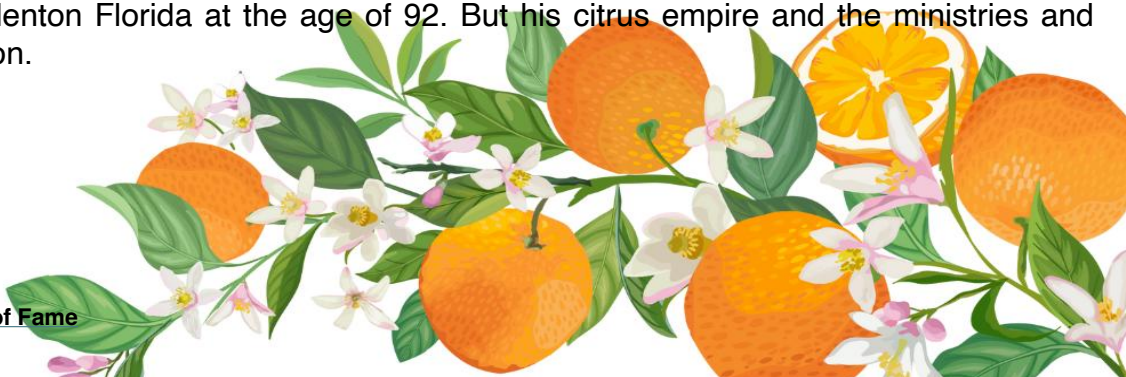

As the years progressed, Tropicana only continued to grow, causing Rossi to develop the Tropicana Juice Train in 1970. Tropicana orange juice was shipped in bulk, via insulated boxcars, in what was a mile long train with each boxcar carrying one million gallons of orange juice to New Jersey on a weekly basis. By the following year, the company was operating two 60-car unit trains a week. He not only dominated the market, but he also revolutionized the industry.

Rossi's immense success in the fresh orange juice market earned him the title: "The Father of Chilled Juice in Florida." In 1978, Rossi retired and sold Tropicana for nearly $500 million.

Despite his enormous accomplishments, this is not what he wished to be remembered by. Rather, Anthony Rossi once stated that his organizations are here "to please the Lord, we don't try to please man. We try to get along with man in the best way possible – to love one another – but not to be better than anyone else. Pride is a sin." It was a traumatic event from Rossi's childhood that made him think more about God and spiritual things. A catastrophic earthquake and tsunami struck Messina when Anthony was 8 years old, flattening much of the town and killing thousands.

After selling Tropicana, Rossi used his money to begin several charitable Christian ventures including Bradenton Missionary Village, a home for retired missionaries, and Aurora Ministries, an organization that created and mailed audio tapes of scripture in native languages of dozens of countries worldwide. He also traveled back home to Italy annually from 1952, and in 1966 he helped to fund a church and mission there. Anthony died in 1993 in Bradenton Florida at the age of 92. But his citrus empire and the ministries and missions that he created live on.

“WE DIDN'T LOSE THE GAME; WE JUST RAN OUT OF TIME.”

With football season in full swing, we thought you might want to learn more about one of the most famous football coaches who just happens to be Italian. He was inducted into Pro Football's Hall of Fame and under his leadership his team won five NFL Championships in seven years. In fact, the Super Bowl trophy is named in his honor: the Vince Lombardi Trophy.

There were three constants throughout Lombardi's life, his Roman Catholic religion, his family, and football. Although born in Brooklyn, both of his parents were from Southern Italy. His father and uncle were butchers and opened a shop in Manhattan's Meatpacking District. And even during the depression his family did well. Vince helped out in the family business although he knew he didn't want to become a butcher; he hated it.

Church was very important, and he enrolled in Cathedral Preparatory Seminary. Although he played on the school's baseball and basketball teams his performance was hindered by his poor athleticism and eyesight. Against school rules, he played football off campus. He decided not to become a priest but attended daily Mass throughout his life.

He joined St. Francis Preparatory school and made the All-City football team as a fullback. In 1933, he earned a football scholarship to Fordham University. Fordham's website says Vince Lombardi came to Fordham with a football scholarship in hand and a Brooklyn-sized chip on his shoulder. At five-foot-eight and 185 pounds, the stocky but undersized kid from Sheepshead Bay was determined to make an impression on the gridiron. Little did he know how lasting this impression would be.

After graduation he had a few coaching jobs, but the country was still plagued by the Great Depression. With his father's support and encouragement, he enrolled in Fordham Law School. However, he dropped out after only one semester due to his desire to start and support a family.

Lombardi's roommate Jim Lawlor introduced him to his cousin's relative; Marie Planitz. They wanted to get married but her stockbroker father did not like the idea of his daughter marrying the son of an Italian butcher from Brooklyn. This was a prejudice Lombardi knew well from outside their local neighborhood. He and his siblings were subject to the rampant ethnic discrimination that existed at the time against Italian immigrants and their descendants. Nonetheless, Lombardi and Marie wed on August 31, 1940.

Lombardi continued coaching football and following an assistant coaching job at West Point, he accepted his first position in the NFL with the New York Giants. Lombardi was known for his discipline, attention to detail, and focus on fundamentals. He emphasized teamwork, perseverance, and work ethics. His coaching style and philosophy had a profound impact on professional football.

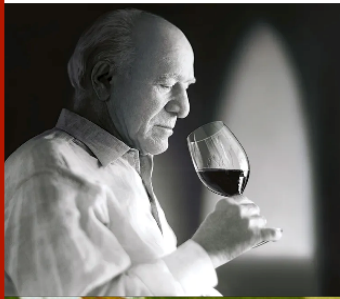

Vince Lombardi's achievements and influence also extend well beyond football. Lombardi's speeches and leadership principles left a lasting impact: "Perfection is not attainable, but if we chase perfection, we can catch excellence," "Winners never quit and quitters never win," "The dictionary is the only place that success comes before work".

Vince Lombardi's impact was significant, instilling values of discipline, hard work, perseverance, and commitment to excellence. His emphasis on foundational principles, loyalty, and character-building provided a blueprint for success, teaching that true achievement comes from dedicated effort, not just natural talent.

“Nella botte piccola c’è il vino buono”

(In small barrels, there’s good wine)

No other country in the world produces more wine than Italy. We know that wines are produced in regions, and wine grapes grow best between the 30th and the 50th degrees of latitude. This area is found in both the Northern and Southern Hemispheres, and not surprisingly, Italy and California share this area in common.

Some of America’s best wines were grown by first-generation Italian, Robert Mondavi. Mondavi’s parents emigrated from the Marche region of Italy and settled in Hibbing, Minnesota. When he was 10 years old his family moved to Lodi, California. His dad established a fruit packing business under the name C. Mondavi and Sons, shipping grapes to the east coast to be used for home winemaking. Robert graduated from Stanford University with a degree in economics and business administration and joined the family business. But in 1966, after a family disagreement, he started his own winery located in Oakville, within California’s Napa Valley region.

Robert Mondavi saw what few others did, that Napa Valley could rival the great wine regions of the world. He believed in wines that reflected their origin, shaped by soil, climate, and the hands that farm the land. He drew inspiration from the Old World and introduced innovative winemaking techniques that redefined standards of excellence.

Mondavi travelled the world promoting Napa Valley. He encouraged Americans to appreciate food and wine culture. And he brought culture to Napa Valley itself, founding a cultural center, an art school, and even restoring an Opera House. He dedicated himself to creating experiences that brought people together, blending the worlds of wine, cuisine, and the arts. Through vibrant cultural events and a spirit of hospitality, Robert invited all who visited to embrace a life of appreciation, conviviality, and community.

After decades of experiments and passion, his search for excellence was achieved when the Grand European Jury Wine Tasting of 1997 awarded the Robert Mondavi Chardonnay Reserve, first place. In 2005, Mondavi and his younger brother Peter made wine together for the first time since their feud. Using grapes from both family vineyards, they produced one barrel of cabernet blend, which was sold for $400,000 under the name "Ancora Una Volta" ("Once Again") at the 2005 Napa Valley Auction.

Robert Mondavi received the Order of Merit of the Italian Republic in 2002, recognizing his lifetime contributions to the wine industry and his efforts in promoting Italian values of good food, wine, and culture in America. This honor is Italy's most senior order of merit. “My passion for bringing wine into the American culture was motivated by a desire to plant deep into the soil of our young country the same values, traditions and daily pleasures that my mother and father had brought with them from central Italy; good food, good wine and love of family.”

“In vino veritas”...In wine there is truth.

Newsletter -Thank You!

The September Lion's Roar had a couple of articles that really surprised me with things I never knew.

What a great feeling I got reading how an Italian young man became the chief stone carver on the Mount Rushmore National Memorial. I will forever look at that Monument with so much pride knowing Luigi Del Bianco was involved.

The Bean Bags were another surprise, how 3 young Italian designers came up with that idea at the time. They were very popular when they first came out!

And finally, how inspirational to hear about the different Saints and to know all the work they did and how, the work we all do, parallel each other and the fact that these Saints all walk with us as we do them.

What a comforting feeling to know that. Great job Donna, great job Mark.

America Lodge Annual Picnic in the Park - Thank you!

This year's annual picnic in the park was another fantastic event, with 144 members, family, and friends in attendance. We truly appreciate all who attended, especially the members from other OSDIA lodges. Once again, the staff and food from Plattduetsche were exceptional, with some even claiming the food was more delicious than last year.

Many people contributed to this event, starting with our two sponsors, John Giuffré and John Koziarz, who have generously supported this event for the past three years. Their unwavering support allows our members, friends, and family to enjoy the picnic at a reduced per-person price.

Special thanks to my co-chair, Freddie Pittella, who makes this event what it is.

Marie Geneva Frank played a crucial role in arranging and creating gift baskets. Year after year, Jeannette, Bianca, and Angelo LaVeglia showcase their creativity by transforming member donations into ten of the most beautiful raffle baskets. Bill Teitz went above and beyond by coming to my home to load the raffle baskets into his truck and assisting with their delivery and setup at the venue. Jo Maggio, Nancie Caracciolo, Debra Goldmann, Lisa Spano, and Mary Rose O'Hara diligently checked guests in, sold 50/50 and raffle tickets, and ensured everything ran smoothly. Anthony Spano, our own magician, captivated the audience with his enchanting walk-around magic. Rosanna and Joe Weitekamp brought along the games for the children to enjoy.

In terms of numbers, the picnic raised $560.00 for our scholarship fund, and the combined profit from the raffle and 50/50 tickets amounted to $3,090.00.

We were delighted to have Elaine Phillips, the Comptroller of Nassau County, present America Lodge with a congratulatory citation. Additionally, we had the pleasure of receiving visits from Nassau County Legislator John Giuffré, Town of Hempstead Supervisor John Ferretti, and Town Councilman Thomas Muscarella.

In closing, I want to express my deepest gratitude to Joe Armocida for once again entrusting me with the responsibility of chairing the picnic. Planning this event is a labor of love, and I eagerly anticipate continuing the tradition that our founding members established many years ago.

BECOME AN OFFICER!

2026 ELECTIONS!

AMERICA LODGE #2245

It's That Time of Year Again...

America Lodge will elect our officers this February, and we wanted to invite everyone to learn more about our officer positions and responsibilities. We hope this information will help you discern whether you are ready to become an officer!

For any organization to succeed they must consider a Succession Plan (a pipeline of talent ready to fill roles in the future, ensuring continuity and growth). Because our officer positions are voted on, and elections are held every two years, America Lodge must always identify and prepare its future leaders. An effective Succession Plan calls for talented new officers to join the ranks of existing officers to bring new ideas, new leadership styles and new perspectives.

Some may ask, what are the qualities of an officer? Well, as an officer, you need to have initiative, ambition, good judgement together with a certain human kindness all cemented with an unfailing sense of courtesy and tact. At the heart of it all, officers are members just like YOU, who volunteer to help our Lodge and OSDIA grow and share our beautiful heritage.

Any effective leader knows that to be successful; you mustn't forget the past, you must build on it. America Lodge has a wonderful 54-year history, rich with visions and ideas which have all come to fruition. Together we stand, proud to be Italian Americans and celebrate everything our Italian forefathers and descendants gave the world.

Is now your time to step up and join our officer ranks? I think you will be surprised at how such a small contribution of your time can yield such great results. Your contribution helps us ensure the continued viability and strength of America Lodge. If you can't volunteer at this time, won't you please encourage and talk to someone about becoming an officer. Your support may be all they need...

America Lodge 54th Anniversary Dinner Dance celebration

honoring

OSDA National President Thomas Lupo

NY Grand Lodge President Arthur Spera

and

America Lodge Corresponding Secretary, Award Winning Newsletter Editor and Website Creator,

Donna Giorandino Johnson

Sunday, October 19th 2025

The answer to the question in my Editor's message is "C": To remember the largest single mass lynching in U.S. history that murdered 11 innocent Italian Americans in New Orleans.

It happens only once a year. And this year it promises to be the best ever! When America Lodge is honoring the Order Sons and Daughters of Italy in America's new National President, Tom Lupo, new New York State President, Arthur Spera, and our very own Donna Giorandino Johnson, we are pulling out all the stops.

Leonard's Palazzo is one of the finest event venues on Long Island, as noted by the "wedding wire", and with over 2000 Google reviews, they are the perfect choice to host this year's event. Accordingly, this year's menu will be incredible!

It all starts at 12:00pm on Sunday, October 19th.

We thought it would be fun to share with you our delicious dining options. But the list is too long for one email. So for the next three days we will share with you what to expect for our appetizers, entrees and desserts.

For a little teaser...the Cocktail hour includes PREMIUM liquors, six cold displays, six hot hors d'oeuvres and the famous Palazzo Charcuterie displayed on butcher block! Then there is the first course appetizer. You will have YOUR CHOICE OF FOUR Entrees. And I hope you saved room, because we didn't forget about dessert. Wait until you see what is planned...

Of course there will be music and dancing, beautiful floral centerpieces, green, white and red napkins/linens. Five full hours of entertainment, food, family and fun, all for the same price as last year; only $125. EVERYTHING IS INCLUDED!!

In tomorrow's email we will take a deeper dive into exactly what will be served during the cocktail hour. The list is extensive!!

Did you reserve your tickets yet? Trust us, you won't want to miss this year's Dinner Dance. I can't remember when America Lodge last honored both our National and State Presidents during the same event. Tom and Arthur will share their visions for the future of the Order. You can read the bios from this year's honorees in our wonderfully famous Dinner Dance Journal! You can also place a congratulatory advertisement supporting our honorees as well as America Lodge.

Yes, America Lodge's 54th Annual Anniversary Dinner Dance will be EPIC! The only thing that will make it even more special is you... We hope to see you there! So stay tuned for tomorrow's email discussion about our cocktail hour. Who knew you could pack so much food and drinks into one hour?

To reserve your tickets please contact event organizers Andrew Monteleone or Karen Mollish. To place a Journal advertisement or booster, please contact Debra Goldmann.

The cocktail hour which begins at 12 pm includes Premium liquor, beer, soda, and juices served at the aforementioned onyx stone bar. Every table will have Cabernet and Pinot Grigio to enjoy without the need to visit the bar.

Our cocktail hour food choices are incredible!
